

NATIONAL CONSTITUTION DAY

The Constitution is not a mere lawyer's document. It is a vehicle of life and its spirit is always the spirit of age' – Dr. B.R. Ambedkar

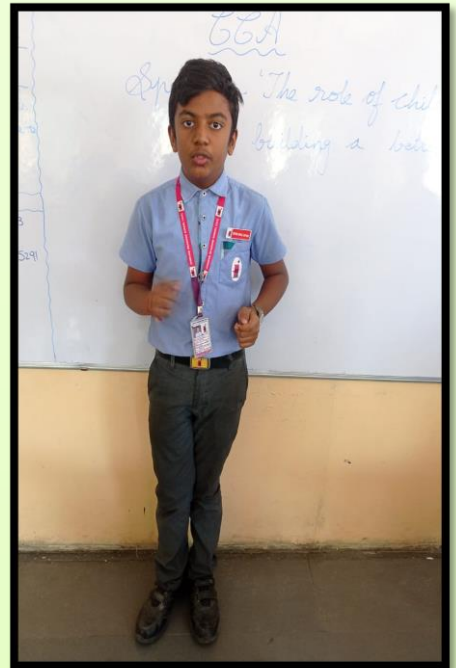

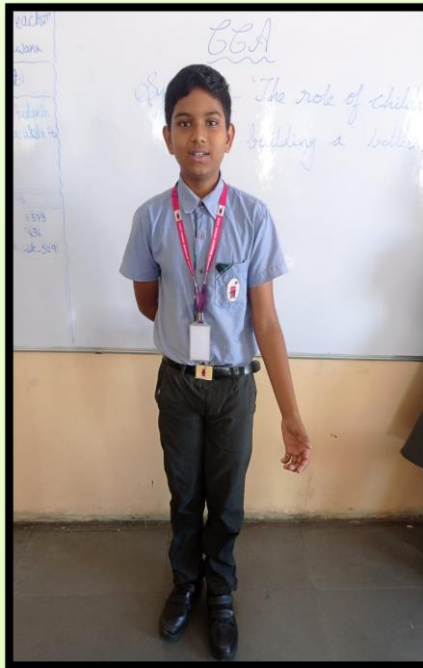

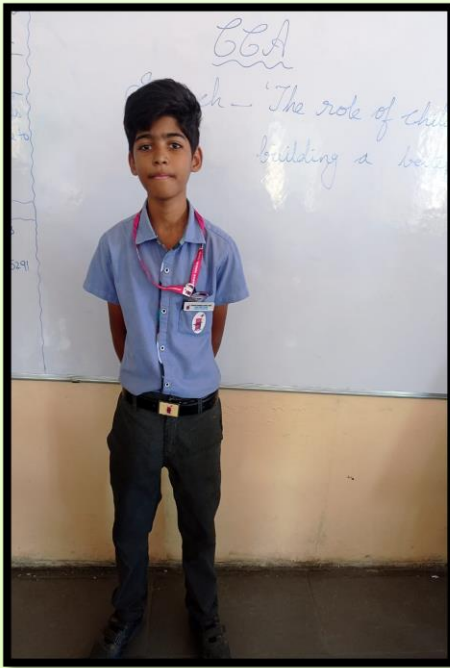

National Constitution Day, also known as Samvidhan Divas, is observed annually on 26th November to honor the adoption of the Indian Constitution by the Constituent Assembly on 26th November 1949. This day serves as a tribute to Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the chief architect of the Indian Constitution. The Integrity Club organized a poster-making activity on "Fundamental Rights and Duties" for students of Grades VI and VII. Through research and creative expression, students showcased their understanding of their rights and responsibilities. This activity not only deepened their knowledge of constitutional principles but also instilled a sense of duty and respect for democracy, fostering responsible citizenship.

UNIVERSAL CHILDREN'S DAY

"Children are not things to be molded, but are people to be unfolded"

The Literary Club organized a special session for Grades VI and VII on 'The Role of Children in Building a Better Future'. Students engaged in thoughtful research and reflection, exploring how young minds can drive societal progress. They delivered compelling speeches, highlighting how simple yet meaningful actions – such as conserving resources or standing up against injustice can lead to lasting change. This session empowered students to recognize their potential as future leaders and changemakers, encouraging them to cultivate positive values like kindness and responsibility., hard work, and social responsibility, that contribute to a brighter future.

ANNUAL DAY Cultural Odyssey

The much-anticipated Annual Day Celebration of our school took place on December 21st, leaving a lasting impression. The event was a vibrant showcase of creativity, talent, and school spirit, highlighting the exceptional abilities of our students and the strong sense of community that defines us.

The grand finale – a mesmerizing fusion dance – captivated the audience, drawing thunderous applause and bringing the festivities to a spectacular conclusion. The event's success was a testament to the dedication and teamwork of our students, teachers, and parents.

As we cherish the memories of this remarkable Annual Day, we move forward with renewed enthusiasm and inspiration. Congratulations to everyone who contributed to making this celebration truly extraordinary!

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS

"Peace on earth will come to stay, when we live Christmas every day."

Christmas, the festival of joy and happiness, was celebrated in school. Students and teachers participated with great enthusiasm. Pre-primary children dressed up colourfully and participated in the eve.

Students performed skit through which they portrayed the birth of Jesus Christ. They also sang melodious carols. The best part of the program was the entry of Santa. Students applauded with excitement. This was an unforgettable day for everyone.

